

OPENING FRIDAY . . . Chapel Theatre's Halloween production of "Dracula," from the novel by Bram Stoker, will open Friday. The cast includes (from left) Al Taylor as Harker, JoAnn Gungura as Lucy, and Billy Creamer as Renfield. The play will run Friday through Sunday for five weeks following a champagne opening Friday evening. Reservations may be made by calling the Chapel Theatre box office.

'Dracula' Opens Here Friday

One of the best known thrillers of all time — Bram Stoker's "Dracula" — will open Friday evening at Chapel Theatre, 4164 W. Pacific Coast Hwy., for a five-week run.

A champagne opening has been scheduled for Friday evening in keeping with the Halloween theme which led to the selection of "Dracula" as Chapel's second fall season production.

Study Team Will Meet On Sunday

Members of a study team of the Commission on Public Affairs of the Southern California Council of Churches will meet Sunday at 7:15 p.m. at Walteria Community Methodist Church.

The team, one of several formed to study and interpret the work of the Sixth World Order and Study Conference and to suggest resources and ideas for local church programs, will meet in the church social hall, 3646 Newton St.

Members of the team include the Rev. Frank Knouse, pastor of the Walteria Community Methodist Church; Mrs. Robert H. Prentice, United Presbyterian Church of Long Beach; Mrs. Wilma Sites of the United Church of Christ of Long Beach, and the Rev. James Leovic.

The Rev. Mr. Knouse is a member of the Commission on Public Affairs.

Sunday's meeting is open to the public, the Rev. Mr. Knouse said.

Third Place Won By Cheerleaders

West High School's cheerleaders have won third place in the semi-annual Southern California cheerleading competition.

The girls—Beckie Crum, Stephanie Herzog, Christine Anderson, Janet Hayes, and Nancy Fukumoto—participated with 38 schools in the annual contest.

Director Barbara Vrooman of Torrance warns audiences to be prepared for the unexpected as the stage will abound with the supernatural trickery and illusion which has made the play one of the best known of the horror stories.

Others in the cast include Rene Galleran as Miss Wells JoAnn Gungura of Torrance as Lucy Seward, Harold Hofenberger of Redondo Beach as Dr. Seward, Al Taylor of Redondo Beach as Jonathan Harker, and Ed Anderson of Westchester as Buttersworth.

Doris Johnson, production manager, heads the backstage crew. Bill Adams is stage manager and Beverly Adams, script manager. Others assisting the production are Art Hamer, technical advisor; Dolle Hamer sound; George Bingham and Carol Brannon, lights; Irene Petty and Hazel Anderson, costumes, and Don Burton and Beverly Adams, props.

New Class For Pilots Scheduled

Demand for a 12-hour refresher course for pilots offered by Torrance Evening High School for the first time this fall was so great that another round of classes has been scheduled to take care of would-be students unable to be accommodated last month, according to Raymond Collins, adult education principal.

The class will begin Tuesday, Nov. 8, and meet each Tuesday through Dec. 6 in room L-1 at South High from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

Based on the Federal Aviation Advisory Circular AC 61-10, the class is intended to help the licensed practicing pilot upgrade his knowledge requirements of his license.

The course will include latest federal air regulations, navigation, meteorology, and safe operating practices. Instructor will be Miss Mary Blair, an FAA rated ground instructor, a California certificated teacher, a professional pilot and aviation educator.
